Forecast for Wednesday 13 Sep 2023

Weather: Clear spells and rather chilly, perhaps a few mist patches in the glens around dawn. This will lead onto a dry and bright morning, some sunny spells expected. High cloud increasing from the west with outbreaks of rain reaching Creag Meagaidh and the west from mid to late-afternoon, and all ranges in the evening, becoming heavy and persistent at times.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 80% lowering to 30% in the evening.

Low cloud and visibility: No significant cloud at first, but becoming extensive 600 to 900m in the evening, patches or occasional 300m then developing. Visibility starting very good or excellent except in any early mist, but falling moderate or poor in the evening, occasionally very poor at height.
